To Whom It May Concern

Letter of Recommendation

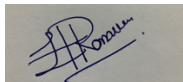

It is with great pleasure I am writing this reference letter at the request of Mr. Oshada Basnayake, student no: 10025758. He is one of the students of the National School of Business Management, who is in his third year of academic and waiting for the final results of BSc (Hons) Computer Security degree programme conducted in collaboration with Plymouth University, United Kingdom.

Oshada was noted for his dedicated work during the study time in National School of Business Management. He is smart, enthusiastic, compassionate, and genuinely well rounded. He is a diligent worker and will ensure that any given task is carried out to successful completion. He exhibits some good characteristics such as independence, excellent participation in class and confidence, which are essential to success in any area.

In conclusion, I would like to recommend Mr. Oshada Basnayake, for the employment and further studies in his area of expertise. It is clear to me as I hope it is to you that Oshada is an exceptional candidate, one that would contribute greatly to any organization. I wholeheartedly recommend him and wish the very best in all future endeavors.

Thank you,

Yours Sincerely,
